COUNSELOR IN TRAINING CONTRACT

Our goal is to provide each Counselor In Training (CIT) an opportunity to build character and learn responsibility through observation and experience while assisting in the City of Vista Day Camp Program. The following outlines some basic expectations as it relates to the work of a CIT.

CIT Initials	Parent Initials	CIT Expectations
		Dress Code: I will wear the designated apparel each day I work including name tag, lanyard and closed-toe shoes. I will further wear pants/shorts that are appropriate as designated by the standard RCS Department dress code.
		Work Habits: I will observe the designated work hours, 9a-3p, and arrive on time as expected. I will further inform the supervising staff member of any days I will not be in attendance due to illness or other factor prior to my start time.
		Assignment: I understand my camp assignment will be at the discretion of the supervising staff member in order to provide a well rounded view of the camp program. I further understand I will NOT be assigned to Adventure Camp.
		Responsibilities: I understand I will be assigned a wide variety of tasks in support of the Day Camp Program these may include but are not limited to snack preparation, gathering supplies, leading/planning activities and cleaning.
		Personal Relations: I will conduct myself in a manner that is appropriate for a person of my position. This includes proper use of language, having only suitable conversations and treating all individuals with respect.
		Performance: I will follow the directions given to me by all supervising staff and will finish each assignment as it was delegated within the time frame allotted. I will further insure each project is thoroughly and accurately completed.
		Electronic Devices: I understand that personal cell phones, MP3 players and other electronic devices are NOT permitted to be used during designated work hours.
		Initiative: I will take the initiative by engaging in activities or assisting staff that require additional support without the prompting of supervising staff. I will also make suggestions that support the smooth operation of the program.
		Safety: I understand that I am a role model for young campers and I will model positive behaviors including observance of all safety rules and protocols and the proper use and care of equipment.
		Supervision: I understand that I am a Counselor-in-Training and have limited responsibilities in regard to camper supervision. I will not discipline a child for any reason, but will work with the staff to report and observe the process.
		Sign in/out: I will sign in and out each day on the designated attendance sheet with the supervision and approval of a parent/guardian.
		Walk Home Authorization (optional): I have approval from my parent to sign-out and walk home once my shift has ended for the day. Authorized time (optional):

I understand that I am fully responsible for my behavior and actions. I will also accept the consequences and learn from my mistakes. These may include but are not limited to discussion with program supervisor, written warning, re-assignment, and suspension for a specified period of time, expulsion from the program or any combination therein. All disciplinary actions will be at the discretion of the program supervisor depending on the severity of the infraction.
